

COVER LETTER

São Paulo, July 27 , 2025.

Dear recruiter,

I am writing with great enthusiasm to apply for the position of Bilingual Language Teacher / Academic Coordinator / Teacher Trainer, as advertised. With over 20 years of experience teaching English, Spanish, and Portuguese—and a solid track record in renowned institutions such as Cultura Inglesa, Maple Bear, and Colégio Objetivo—I believe my profile aligns strongly with the values of innovation, inclusion, and academic excellence that leading educational institutions seek today.

My career has been shaped by the consistent implementation of active learning methodologies, including Flipped Classroom, Project-Based Learning, and Problem-Based Learning, both in the classroom and in teacher development programs. As a pedagogical coordinator and trainer, I have designed and executed ILPs – (Innovative Learning Plans), created bilingual after-school programs, and led training sessions that significantly boosted teacher engagement and overall productivity.

I am also committed to continuous professional development, holding specializations in Active Methodologies, Neuroscience Applied to Education, and English Language Teaching. I constantly seek to incorporate the latest pedagogical research into classroom practice. My work with diverse and heterogeneous classrooms has given me extensive experience in fostering inclusive learning environments that honor cognitive differences and promote student agency.

I am looking for an opportunity where I can actively contribute to institutional growth—offering not only my expertise in language education but also my leadership in curriculum innovation, teacher training, and pedagogical development. I would welcome the opportunity for a conversation, where I can share how my background and educational vision can align with your organization's goals.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your team.

Sincerely,

Wagner Figueiró França Júnior
